Germany has decided to introduce temporary border controls to further reduce the risk of infection from the Corona virus. The controls at the borders with Austria, Switzerland, France, Luxembourg and Denmark will apply until April 14, 2020.

Since March 20, 2020, border crossings at the land borders with Austria, France, Luxembourg, Denmark and Switzerland have only been possible at certain border crossing points. A list of these border crossing points is available on the internet:
