

ITF Transport Outlook 2019

The ITF Transport Outlook

- ▶ Biennial publication
- ▶ Fourth Edition to be part of the OECD Outlook series
- ▶ 2019 edition due out in January
- ▶ Strategic tool to support policy-makers in shaping the future of transport policies
- ▶ Examines development of global transport volumes and related CO₂ emissions, health impacts

2019 edition: Focus on transport disruptions

Preliminary list of potential issues:

- ▶ Ultra-high-speed surface modes
- ▶ Massive shared mobility
- ▶ Electrification of personal mobility
- ▶ Zero emitting shipping pathways
- ▶ 3D printing
- ▶ Drones
- ▶ Electric highways
- ▶ New international trade routes
- ▶ High capacity trucks
- ▶ Teleworking, E-commerce
- ▶ Massive computing for big data
- ▶ Automation

Timeline for publication

- ▶ First draft ready in July 2018
- ▶ Sent to countries and stakeholders for review and comments October 2018
- ▶ Final version sent for publication early November 2018
- ▶ Publication in January 2019

Outlook session at the Summit

- ▶ Thursday 24 May 9:00-10:30
- ▶ Long-term trends for travel demand and emissions
- ▶ Scenarios for disruption
- ▶ Invited guests

Thank you