JTRC Programme of Work 2015-2016

Roundtables

- Big Data and Open Data, including how to better collect it in public and private transportation and how to make better use of it.

- Cooperative systems and automated driving, including assessing the future prevalence of car sharing and the role of the regulatory authorities and public administration.

- Wider Economic Benefits of Accessibility.

- Infrastructure Governance: Beyond the PPP.

- System Safety Managements.

- Cost Benefit Analysis for regulatory change in transportation.

- Interaction between bus, light rail, rail, metro and bicycle systems for sustainable and efficient urban transport.

- Trade-off between punctuality, reliability and reduced /prolonged travel time in rail.

Working Groups

- Smart use of roads.

- Climate change: paving the way for easy adaptation.

- Measures against the aging of road structures, and measures to manage large vehicles and regulate overloaded vehicles.